Description

I followed the Windows Installation Guide for Suricata and ran into an error when I compiled Suricata. "iconv.h not found"

I wish I could tell you exactly what fixed it but I was in a rush and just scattershot it. I went back into Cygwin and added a few packages. It looked like iconv and inconv2 were there but I checked Src and also added a few more: cygwin64-ilibconv, mingw64-x86_64-win-iconv, and mingw64-x86_win-iconv

Then I was able to get past that.

Peter can you take a look at that? Or Mike can you try to reproduce it?

#2 - 01/23/2018 03:32 PM - Peter Manev

Yes - I am working on an upgraded guide since we have 64bit capability now as well.

#3 - 01/23/2018 03:36 PM - Victor Julien

Please make sure the new guide is done in sphinx format and becomes part of the user guide.

#4 - 01/23/2018 03:39 PM - Peter Manev

Yes of course.
