The function JsonAddCommonOptions is not called in SMB, RDP, TFTP and DHCP protocols resulting in Community ID not to be present even if asked.

In the case of SMB and RDP this is clearly missing. For TFTP and DHCP, this could be discussed as we have no real flow. But other tools should be able to build the same community ID so it seems ok to have it.