Description

Some of the exception policies (for instance, the midstream one - #5468) could be applied in extreme/advanced profiling and tuning scenarios, to guarantee that all available resources would go to streams users actually want to inspect, for instance.

It would be nice to have such aspects documented and explained.